Wisdom Family Foundation Awards Seven Elgin U-46 Senior High School Students with Scholarships

Elgin, IL- Wisdom Family Foundation has awarded seven Elgin U-46 high school seniors, Jamila Riley (Larkin High School), Caitlin Nicolai (Larkin High School), Janet Cardenas (Elgin High School), Kimberly Dominguez (Bartlett High School), Dhara Patel (Streamwood High School), Claire Sattler (South Elgin High School) and Paula Lopez (South Elgin High School) with $1,500.00 scholarships to be used towards higher education expenses.

In order to qualify for this scholarship, candidates are required to meet and follow specific application criteria. Greg Jareczek, Wisdom Family Foundation board member explains, "The Wisdom Family Foundation board members review all applications. We were very impressed with this year's applicants and found these seven students to be among our finest scholarship recipients to date".

"We are committed to assisting qualified U-46 Elgin students with financial assistance to pursue higher education and believe strongly that these efforts impact the entire Elgin community," enthuses Kristi Wisdom, Managing Director of the Wisdom Family Foundation.

The Wisdom Family Foundation's goal is to provide financial support to organizations and programs that assist in the growth and overall well being of children and families in the greater Elgin, Illinois area. The Wisdom Foundation scholarship program offers students, who are part of the U-46 school district, the opportunity to earn scholarships to use to further their education. The scholarship program is a sustainable initiative because it targets students who have faced and overcome extraordinary challenges and encourages their continued commitment to education.
